

Daily Paywall

The Paywalls of
The Wall Street Journal
Financial Times
The Economist
were Hacked

60,000

pay-per-view

news articles

from 2014 are now

available for free

*The largest
publishing firm
shut it down for violation of 5
copyright laws*

DailyPaywall.com

wants to be free!

*For the Fair Use of crucial information
For Everyone*

Democracy

needs

an Informed Public

Featuring

articles on

inequality

corruption

finance crime

*It's a Conceptual Artwork

to pay readers & writers

by crowdfunding itself

Instead of paying
to access knowledge

People are paid
to learn

Conceptual Art

about contemporary

Information Economy

*Daily Paywall
would serve democratic and educational aims
by offering to pay readers to access and understand the news articles,
while directly rewarding critical
writers.*

It wants to bypass the interfering middleman's agenda.

*It extracts value
from the accumulation of
information
to reinvest it
into socio-critical analysis.*

*Knowledge as an asset;
information as currency;
data as raw material;
determine the current economic and social order.*

*Daily Paywall questions contemporary socio-economic dynamics
and how they can be rearranged as an art practice.*

*The creative reconfiguration of the flow of information
is the ultimate social and artistic practice.*

*It's about beauty
of concepts and gestures
that examine
the control over the information
society.*